

2011-2012
HERITAGE TRAIL
RALEIGH
PASSPORT

WELCOME

Welcome to the Raleigh Heritage Trail Passport Program! Visit at least six of the sites on the trail and have a staff member stamp your passport. After you've collected six stamps, present your passport at any site and collect your patch! Passports must be completed between April 1, 2011 and March 31, 2012 to be eligible for a patch.

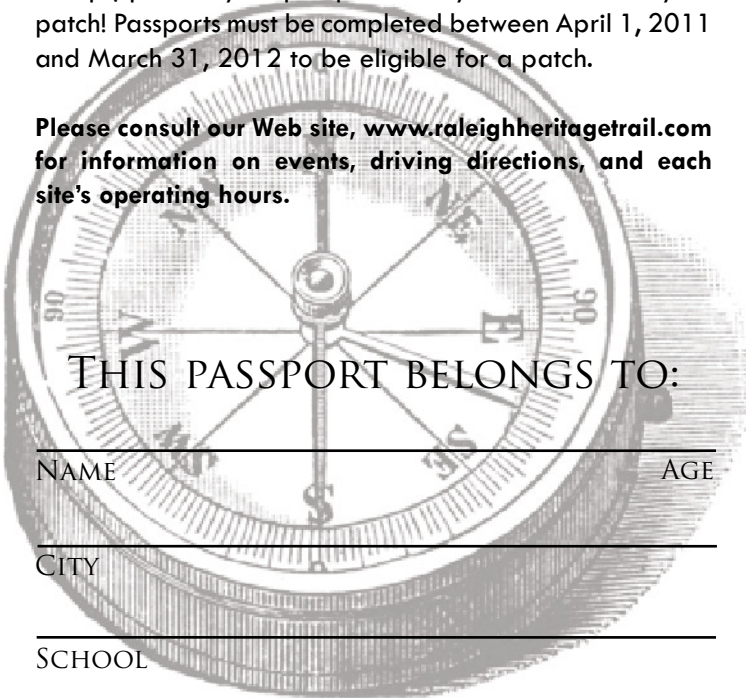

Please consult our Web site, www.raleighheritagetrail.com for information on events, driving directions, and each site's operating hours.

THIS PASSPORT BELONGS TO:

NAME _____ AGE _____

CITY _____

SCHOOL _____

DATE COMPLETED _____ SIGNATURE _____

RICHARD B. HARRISON LIBRARY
Originally located in a small storefront building in the heart of the black business community, the Richard B. Harrison Library first opened in 1935 with 890 books.

RALEIGH CITY MUSEUM
Located in the historic Briggs Building in downtown Raleigh, the Raleigh City Museum was established in 1993 as a private, non-profit museum and educational center.

OLIVIA RANEY LOCAL HISTORY LIBRARY
The library's collection focuses on historical and genealogical materials related to Wake County and North Carolina with an extensive Civil War collection.

NORTH CAROLINA STATE CAPITOL
Completed in 1840 and spared during the Civil War, the Capitol is a fine example of Greek Revival architecture and one of the least changed capitols in the country.

MORDECAI HISTORIC PARK
The Mordecai House is the oldest in Raleigh on its original foundation. The park also features Andrew Johnson's Birthplace and other historic structures.

Start your journey to discover Raleigh's past...

AFRICAN AMERICAN CULTURAL COMPLEX
This nationally acclaimed museum houses a collection of outstanding contributions made by African Americans toward the development of the state and nation.

HAYWOOD HALL HOUSE AND GARDENS
John Haywood, state treasurer and Raleigh's first mayor, built this Federal style structure in 1799 to house his family within Raleigh's original city limits.

HISTORIC OAK VIEW COUNTY PARK
Historic Oak View County Park is a nineteenth century farmstead devoted to interpreting agricultural and rural heritage.

HISTORIC YATES MILL COUNTY PARK
Established circa 1756, Yates Mill is Wake County's last remaining water-powered gristmill. Now restored, the mill is the centerpiece of a 174-acre nature park.

JOEL LANE MUSEUM HOUSE
Built in the 1770s, this landmark is one of Wake County's oldest homes and was the residence of Joel Lane, the "Father of Raleigh."